Join Jeff Creswell for the Storyline Alumni Course:

Taking a Deeper Dive into your Storyline Work!

Portland, Oregon

This course is designed for classroom teachers who have had the Storyline I course and are using the Storyline method in their classrooms. The class will be participatory in nature. Teachers will have the opportunity to share their Storyline work with colleagues from other schools and learn from each other's expertise. The basic Storyline principals and characteristics will be explored through this process, and participants will learn new ideas for writing their Storyline topics. Teachers will have two full days to work on writing a new Storyline topic for the next school year, and will have the support of their peers and the resources of Storyline Design. With the added day to write a Storyline, teachers will have time to develop their Storyline topics more fully as they take a deeper dive into their Storyline work! Prerequisite: Storyline I: An Introduction
